HISTORY OF THE CSSL

The Canterbury Sunday Soccer League was founded in 1974 by David Bolam-Smith when the inaugural Bolam Cup was played between the eight teams in the League. The top four teams at the end of the Sunday League Season went through to the Semi-Finals of the Bolam Cup.

The final that year was played at Denton Oval in Hornby between Whitcoulls and Christchurch Star with Whitcoulls claiming victory and the first Bolam Cup title.

In recent history, the Bolam Cup has been contested for by the highest ranked teams in each club via knock out cup rounds through-out the season.

The CSSL trophy is contested for by all other teams from the clubs also during knock out cup rounds throughout the season.

As well as the Cup rounds each division plays two rounds from which a winner is found firstly on points from wins and secondly form the goal point difference if two teams are drawn.

The CSSL has been a fantastic competition for over 40 years which is reflected by the number of teams that participate year after year.

We hope you enjoy today's matches.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT 2014

Welcome to the 2014 Bolam Cup and CSSL Trophy finals, this year it is a Club versus Club double header with long time Sunday League club Avonhead playing the relative new comers Southern Districts in both finals so well done to those clubs for making it this far.

The two Bolam Cup finalists, Avonhead A and Southern Districts A, are both quality 1st division sides finishing 2nd and 3rd on the table. Avonhead A ended their long Bolam Cup drought winning this competition last year and will be keen to defend their title after coming second in the CSSL 1st division this year. Southern Districts A gained promotion to the 1st division last year and have never won the Bolam Cup so they will want to put their clubs name on the Trophy for the first time.

The CSSL Cup finalists Avonhead B and Cortados Salamanders were both convincing division winners this year and although they are two divisions apart previous finals have shown the quality gap is not wide enough to prevent an upset.

I would like to congratulate all the finalists and remind everyone that this is the 40th year of the CSSL and we will be having a 6 a-side competition and an extra-large CSSL Prize giving Awards dinner at the Linfield Sports Club on the 13 September at 7.00 pm. Please extend an invite to old club members to help us celebrate the 2014 season and 40 years of Sunday football. Looking forward to see you all there.

Nic Aitken
