HISTORY OF THE CSSL

The Canterbury Sunday Soccer League was founded in 1974 by David Bolam-Smith when the inaugural Bolam Cup was played between the eight teams in the League. The top four teams at the end of the Sunday League Season went through to the semi-finals of the Bolam Cup.

The final that year was played at Denton Oval in Hornby between Whitcoulls and Christchurch Star with Whitcoulls claiming victory and the first Bolam Cup title.

In recent history, the Bolam Cup has been contested for by the highest ranked teams in each club via knock out cup rounds through-out the season.

The CSSL Trophy is contested for by all other teams from the clubs also during knock out cup rounds throughout the season.

As well as the Cup rounds each division plays two rounds from which a winner is found firstly on points from wins and secondly from the goal point difference if two teams are drawn.

The CSSL has been a fantastic competition for over 40 years which is reflected by the number of teams that participate year after year.

We hope you enjoy today's matches.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT 2017

On behalf of the great office of the presidency of the CSSL, I humbly welcome you to the programme for this year's showcase CSSL cup finals. If the day is a true reflection of the season, you are probably struggling to read this on yet another miserably wet windy Canterbury day. I hope instead conditions are perfect for some great football from this year's finalists.

This year's Bolam Cup final will be contested between Canterbury Fiji Rovers A and Glenbyre A. With only 4 points separating the two in the 1st division this year, who finished 2nd and 4th respectively, both will be giving their all to finish the season by getting their hands on the prestigious trophy.

Before setting their sights on life in next year's 1st division having finished top two in division two, Glenbyre C and FC Lyttelton are facing off for the CSSL Trophy. Will Glenbyre do the double? Or will Lyttelton be singing at the final whistle? Having had the privilege of being beaten by both these teams this year, I know first-hand each side is capable of some quality football. I look forward to both teams bringing their best.

Finally I would like to take this opportunity to personally thank all those who have given their time and effort to making this season happen. To all the committee members, the coaches, the team organisers, the players, the referees, the supporters and the dogs who run on the pitch, you all play an integral part in our league and without you I would probably have to spend my Sundays doing housework, so I thank you deeply.

Second finally, I invite you all to this year's prize-giving at Linfield Sports Club on the 16 September to celebrate our successes, thank our volunteers and see-off this season in typical fashion.

Bring on 2018!

Jamie Stewart, CSSL President
